

JOIN US

APPFA FALL 2026
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE

*November 8-11th, 2026
Louisville, Kentucky*

Come join us in Kentucky!

Join us in Louisville, Kentucky, where Southern charm meets world-class attractions. From the legendary Churchill Downs and Kentucky Bourbon Trail to the vibrant riverfront, historic neighborhoods, and exceptional dining scene, Louisville offers something for everyone.

We look forward to welcoming you to Derby City!

Join public pension fund auditing, compliance, and risk management professionals from across the country for three days of insightful learning, engaging discussions, and meaningful networking. Explore emerging technologies, artificial intelligence, fraud prevention, governance best practices, investment oversight, and the future of internal auditing, earning 18.8 hours of CPE credit. Whether you're a new auditor or an experienced leader, you'll leave with practical ideas, valuable connections, and actionable strategies you can immediately bring back to your organization.

For more detailed speaker sessions, registration information, accommodations and all things conference related, see our brochure here.

SEELBACH HOTEL

LOUISVILLE

*Experience Historic Elegance
at the Seelbach
Hilton*

The Seelbach Hilton Louisville, our host hotel for the 2026 APPFA Professional Development Conference, offers a unique blend of historic charm and modern comfort in the heart of downtown Louisville. Renowned for its grand architecture, elegant ballrooms, and rich Kentucky heritage, the Seelbach has welcomed distinguished guests and visitors for more than a century. Conveniently located within walking distance of Louisville's premier dining, entertainment, and cultural attractions, including the vibrant 4th Street Live! district, the Seelbach provides the perfect backdrop for professional development, networking, and experiencing the best of Louisville during your conference stay.

Reserve your room here now!

After a full day of learning and professional development, unwind and connect with colleagues at our APPFA Group Dinner at 4th Street Live! Located in the heart of downtown Louisville and just a short walk from the Seelbach Hotel, this vibrant entertainment district offers the perfect setting to continue conversations, build new professional relationships, and enjoy the energy of one of Louisville's most popular destinations. Whether you're catching up with longtime colleagues or meeting new peers from across the country, this evening promises great food, valuable networking, and a memorable Kentucky experience.

There's More to Explore in Louisville!

Legendary Attractions: Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory and Louisville's celebrated horse-racing heritage

Bourbon City: Downtown distilleries, historic Whiskey Row, and Kentucky bourbon experiences

Riverfront Experiences: Waterfont park, walking and biking paths, and the Big Four Bridge

Food, Arts and Culture: A renowned culinary scene, museums, music, shopping and distinctive neighborhoods

Downtown Energy: Entertainment, nightlife, and attractions steps away from the host hotel.

Come for the conference. Stay for the Louisville experience.